

It brings joy to my life when I listen. I need this as I am without a job. If we were not able to listen K-Love there would be a lot of very angry people who would not support any FCC products. People need to here positive words and music in there troubled times.